Dear Harold:

I enjoyed hearing from you. Jesse Curry sent me a copy of his book, which I have not had time to read as yet. I doubt whether I can help you with the police department, since I have attempted to obtain some of the records previously and they have refused on the grounds that it is being obtained for personal use rather than official business. I have a copy somewhere of the radio logs and if and when you are down here again maybe we can get together and I'll let you look at them. They may be in Chief Curry's book, although I doubt it.

Your friend,

Henry Wade
